The $3,000,000 Bill-Defeat of the Wilmot Proviso.

The Three Million Bill having been passed in a form somewhat different from what was originally form somewhat different from what was originally proposed, we copy it as follows:

AN ACT oppropriating three millions of dollars, to enable the President to conclude a treaty of peace and limits with Mexico.

But unacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That whereas, a state of war now exists between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, which it is desirable should be speedly terminated upon terms just and honorable to both nations; and whereas, assurances have beretafure been given to the Government of Mexico that it was the desire of the President to settle all questions between the two countries on the most libbetween the two countries, it may possibly happen that an expenditure of musey will be called for by the stipulations of any treaty which may be entered into; therefore, the sum of Three Millions of Dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to enable the President to conclude a Treaty of Feace, limits and boundaries with the Republic of Mexico, to be used by him in the event that said Treaty, when signed by the authorized agents of the two Governments, and duly ratified by Mexico, shall call for the expenditure of the exame, or any part thereof; full and accurate accounts for which expenditure shall be by him transmitted to Courtees at as early a day as practicable. cas at an early a day as practicable.

When this bill was before the House in Comnittee of the Whole on Wednesday, Mr. WILMOT moved to add his well-known Proviso as an amendment, and the motion was adopted, 90 to 80, as "Precised. That there shall be neither slavery are involuntary servitude in any territory on the continent of America which shall hereafter be sequired by or annexed to the United States by virtue of this appropriation, or in any other manner whatever, except for crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted: Precised always, That every person escaping into such territory from whom labor or service is lawfully claimed in any one of the United States, such fugitive may be lafully claimed and conveyed out of said territory to the power claiming his or har labor or service.

The Committee rose and reported the bill. Mr. KATHEDN moved the previous question, which was seconded; and the main question was red and put, viz . Will the House agree to the smer Image reported by the Committee of the Whole, (the WILKOT Proviso)? It was decided to whom he alluded. He said he had understood that the President had nominated a member from Pennsylvania as on the calendar, from the House, except one for Minister to the Court of France, and a member from Kentucky as Colonel of one of the regiments.

They had received the reward of their servility. Here a member from Pennsylvania, whose name. I understood, is INGERSOLL-a man of whom ed it I think I heard in some disgraceful transaction a year ago-crossed the floor of the House and inquired of Mr. Ashmun if he accused him of ser.

Mr. Ashuus, without giving more direct answer than a contemptuous smile to the member from Pennsylvania, proceeded to expose, in most ani. mated language, his utter and complete subser passed. viency to the Administration: demonstrated the versatility of his mind in first finding a conclusive ecutive session on the namination of C. The President signed the $3,000,000 loan bill, as soon as it was presented to him-and probably felt relieved after the act. It reached the Senate with his signature, soon after its reassembling. It is now an accomplished fact. With $3,000,000 of hard money in his hand, he may gingle patriotism out of Mexicans, and purchase for us a peace. LECTURE ON ASSOCIATION -Our notice of the poned till this morning. It was delivered on Monday evening last by Mr. H. H. Van Amstron, and was attended by a large and invalligent auditory. The speaker conaldered his subject, which was " The Evils of Existing Society," under the five following heads: 1st. The gradation of the Laboring Classes. 24. The hostile relations of Capitalists. 3d. The defective and perverted education resulting from present social relations. 4th education resulting from present social relations. ith Wasts of present society. Jth. Anarchy of our existing societies. Mr. V. A. first laid down the proposition that labor is the foundation of all national presperity, and that in proportion as the laboring class becomes degraded the sefety of free institutions is endangered. He then traced the history of labor for the last two or three conturies, and proved from authentic documents that not withstanding the great advance in the means of creating wealth which has taken place, the condition of the labor or has, during this period, been undergoing a steady and alarming decertoration. He showed clearly how the gleacto powers with which science has furnished man.

The defective education of large numbers follows so inevisibly on the degradation of the laboring class that it harly necessary to enlarge upon that point, but Mr. V. A. showed clearly that the present organization of Society leads to the imperfecteducation of all classes, even the most fortunate. The sil-prevailing hostility of laterests stimulates into a morbid activity, to almost all men, some of the lower tendencies of our nature, such as selfabness, avarious perverted ambition, &c. while it weakens the higher senuiments, as benevolence, love of truth, justice. Mr. V. A. Instruted this view by reference to that well-known law of Nature by which those faculties in common use become strengthened while those which remain laselive are increased or destroyed.

Mr. V. A. then glained rapidly at the waste entailed upon us by the present system of jaoiated households, and the monopoly of the soil thence resulting. He next

A good dear of strangers are put to be pulsed for the year but only one case has been fatal. The report goes on to say

The whole income of the Institution for the year has been $25.241 57. Of this sum, $5.000 has been applied, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Managers, to the payment of a part of the debt due on the purchase of the enarrely haif of the grounds occupied by the institution. $20.403 66 have been required for the corrent expenses of the year, leaving a balance of $25.37 91 in the hands of the treasurer. At the commencement of the year, the institution was in debt to the treasurer in the sum of $743 58. The expenses for the year 1240, have, however, been considerable less than may be crossonably enticipated for the next, or indeed for coveral subsequent years. Assessments for the construction of a sever in the Eighth-avenue, and the outlay stending the introduction of the Croton water, so indispensable to the health and comfort of our establishment, must some constitute large demands upon the resources of the treasury—and there is yet due to James Boorman, Eaq for the purchase of the easterly haif of the block of ground ($210ts) occupied by the institution, principal and interest, $13,423 68, payable in annual instainments of $5000 each.

The account of the education of the pupils is so inter-

The account of the education of the pupils is so interesting that only want of space prevents our copying it entire. The discipline combines industrial pursuits with study, music and amusement in a way that might advantageously be employed in other schools. This establishment suffers in common with others for the want of suitable means of printing. In this connection we cannot too earnestly recommend the introduction of Phonotypy in books for the blind, this will reduce the labor of learning to read immensely.

By way of prelude to the lecture Mr. Vandenhoff recited a short poem of his own, on Ireland, in which he pictured with a bold and shifful hard, in the most vivid colors, the appalling misery of that unhappy land. The remerks of Mr. Vandenhoff on Poetry proved him to have a high and just appreciation of the beautiful, and his Recitation of various poems developed new and striking effects in them, like variation applied to a sunken picture. A poem cannot be called complete until it has been well read or recited; for until then the author himself does not know the full force.

Police—Yesterday.—Mr. A. G. Owen, residing at the junction of Hudsonst and West Broadway, while standing in Center-st. on Wednesday evening, was robbed of his pocket book, containing a number of papers valuable to the owner only... Contables Josephs and Rice yesterday arrested three colored persons, named Benjamin Anderson, Peter Vance and Hannah Millery, ou a charge of having a few nights ago felonically entered the premises of Mr. John Quinn, No. 80 East Broadway, and smalling therefrom about $40 worth of clothing and a quantity of silver ware. The same officers sire arrested Joseph Rame, of No. 96 Readest, charged with having purchased the silver ware knowing the same to have been stolen, and melting it up into ingots so that it would not be identified. The accused parties were held to answer. The dwelling house of Quincy Stowell, No. 5 Rocsevellat, was entered by some daring thief yesterday, and robbed of three silver watches, six piatola, a quantity of clothing, and $4 in money—worth in all about $100—with which the rogue eccaped. We have no doubt, if Shakspeare himself were to hear some of his finest passages recited, new beauties and hidden mentings which he had never before dreamed of would be for the first time apparent to him.

We were a little surprised that, at the conclusion of the lecture which gave so pleasant an hour to several hundred dollars to the object for which it was delivered, the vote of thanks customary on such occasions was omitted. we are unable to judge critically of the masic, but our impression is that it will grow in favor until it becomes one of the most popular productions of this Company. The ore hearts' accompaniments are very fine, and the Opera is put on the stage in a manner to do infinite credit to Masstro Barilli. The scenery painted by Signors Allegri and Molina, shows a beauty of conception and an artistic finish seldom met with in stage painting. The introduction of a band upon the stage we respectfully suggest be dispensed with, as the orchestra alone is too heavy for the singers. The Opera is set with very heavy accompaniments, evidently not esteulated for such a hand-box as Falmo's. Analysis of Bratty.—"To give the face the oval form and the complements of beauty," says Wirkelman, the aposite of beauty, "the bair ought to crown the forshead and to surround the temples, describing a portion of a cicie, as it is in general seen in beautiful persons." This form of the forehead is appropriate to all ideal heads. On this point Levaner concurs in the same opinion with Winseiman; and the ancients thought the bair produced a very had effect if it descended so love as to hide the forehead.
